

Guidelines for Sharing and Adapting WIDA Materials

Sharing WIDA Documents

WIDA makes many publications available at no charge on its website at wida.wisc.edu. In order to share these documents with others, you should link to them rather than downloading and reposting them.

You can link to documents on the WIDA website from your organization's website, or in shared PDF documents. Try to provide a descriptive link for the URL, rather than just the URL. For example, use this descriptive text to link to the WIDA English Language Development Standards, 2020 Edition instead of just the URL: <https://wida.wisc.edu/teach/standards/eld/2020>.

In addition to linking to documents on the public website, you may also link to documents that are available only to users with accounts on the WIDA Secure Portal. These documents require a login to access. Users who click the link will be asked to log in, after which the link will take them to the correct document. Use a descriptive link for the URL instead of just the URL itself. For example, use this text to link to the ACCESS for ELLs Test Administrator Manual instead of <https://portal.wida.us/resource/detail/11cf2e6c-3e71-eb11-a2dd-0050568beee8>. To avoid confusion for users, add "(WIDA Secure Portal account required)" after the link.

Please do not download and post any WIDA files or documents on your organization's website, or share them via email, unless specifically directed to do so (such as in the case of promotional flyers for WIDA events, for example). Do not post any WIDA documents to shared storage media, such as intranets or Google Drive. To do so is a violation of WIDA's copyright. Instead, link to the documents on the WIDA website, as directed above.

If you have questions about any of these guidelines, contact WIDA at help@wida.us.

Adapting WIDA Materials for Your Own Use

You may adapt WIDA materials for your own use or for the use of others, as long as you do not charge a fee for access to the adapted materials. Please follow these guidelines:

1. Give WIDA credit. Include a clearly displayed copyright notice and reference to the source of the materials. For example, include a line that says "WIDA English Language Development Standards Framework, © 2020 Board of Regents of the University of Wisconsin System wida.wisc.edu."
2. Include author information and contact details. For example, include a line that says "Adapted by Martha Ko, Lowell Elementary School, mko@lowell.k12.gov."
3. Do not create source confusion. Do not include the WIDA logo anywhere on your adaptation. Use a title that clearly describes the source of the adaptation, such as "Lowell Elementary School's Introduction to the WIDA ELD Standards Framework." Do not state or imply WIDA review or approval.

4. Use appropriate WIDA terminology in your adaptation. Double check the WIDA website for correct usage of product and service names.

Licensing WIDA Materials for Commercial Use

If you are a vendor who would like to develop commercially available materials adapted from WIDA intellectual property, please contact help@wida.us for information on licensing.
