

WIDA provides international and independent schools with a trusted, comprehensive approach to teaching, assessing, and supporting multilingual learners. The WIDA International School Consortium is a global network of 500 accredited preK-12 independent schools focused on educating multilingual learners.

Assess

WIDA offers a comprehensive suite of assessments, each anchored in the WIDA Standards Framework and supported by research. WIDA Screener and WIDA MODEL are used by members in the WIDA International School Consortium to determine academic proficiency levels in reading, writing, speaking and listening.

Teach

WIDA resources support a systemic approach to integrating language and content learning by connecting assessment, planning, instruction, and reflection—building on what multilingual learners can do.

Grow

WIDA offers opportunities for educators to attend global events, network with other international educators and build school-wide systems. Professional learning opportunities include WIDA Institutes, Workshops, and Symposia.

“Most people think ‘WIDA’ refers to only a test and haven’t been exposed to the full use for planning, goal setting, conferencing with parents and academic instruction for ELLs. That’s where we have seen the true value: using WIDA as a system to support teaching and learning.”
(EAL Program Coordinator, South America)
